

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

BUTV10 wins Two 2016 Telly Awards

On That Point and Paper Trail are Acknowledged for Excellence

Boston, Massachusetts- April 20, 2016- BUTV10 won a Bronze and its first-ever Silver Telly in the 37th Annual Telly Awards. This is BUTV10's twelfth Telly Award since 2008.

On That Point, a current events discussion show, received a Bronze Telly for their coverage of the Syrian Refugee Crisis. Paper Trail received a Silver Telly for the series finale about a group of students lured to the academic black-market.

"We're honored and humbled to be recognized by the Telly Awards," said Wes Palmer, Co-Producer of Paper Trail. "The commitment of the entire cast and crew is the reason the series turned out as it did and to be acknowledged with a Silver Telly is another proud moment for all of us."

"We would like to thank every member of our team for their hard work and dedication to our show over the past year," said On That Point co-producers, Katie Milliken and Kyle Davi. "Their commitment is what makes On That Point the great show that it is."

The Telly Awards were founded in 1979 to award the best work by respected agencies, companies, and networks throughout the world. From over 13,000 international entries, less than 10% of entries are chosen as Winners of the Silver Telly and approximately 25% of entries are chosen as Winners of the Bronze Telly.
